Running your E-commerce in Portugal

All you need to know to run your business.

Portugal as a great launchpad for e-commerce businesses

Portugal's EU membership grants businesses seamless access to the single European market.

Strategic location that allows easy access to European, African, and American markets.

Highly skilled & multilingual workforce, facilitating global business operations.

What makes invoicing in Portugal unique?

Portugal leads Europe in implementing e-Invoices, pioneering the modernization of the invoicing process.

What are certified invoices?

- In Portugal, businesses and self-employed individuals must use electronic invoices.
- Invoices are validated by the tax authority and have a unique code for security.

How do I know my invoice is certified?

To issue a certified invoice, businesses must use certified invoicing software or services compliant with the AT's technical specifications and standards.

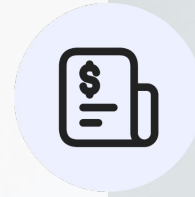

Why are certified invoices important?

- To ensure their compliance with the regulations surrounding certified invoices
- To fulfill their tax obligations and avoid penalties.

Importance of the SAF-T file

Once you are connected to the certified invoicing system, you can start working with the accountant.

All of your invoices and receipts will be stored in a SAF-T file, the file tracks all of your records.

Why do I need the certified accountant?

In Portugal, businesses must legally engage a certified accountant (Contabilista Certificado).

1

Compliance with Tax Regulations

- Complex tax rules, especially VAT and e-invoicing.
- Certified Accountant ensures tax compliance, minimizes errors, and manages VAT registration, reporting, and certified e-invoices.

2

Expertise in Ecommerce

- Certified accountants ensure precise financial reporting and record keeping.
- They make sure your financial statements are properly developed and presented to the different authorities.

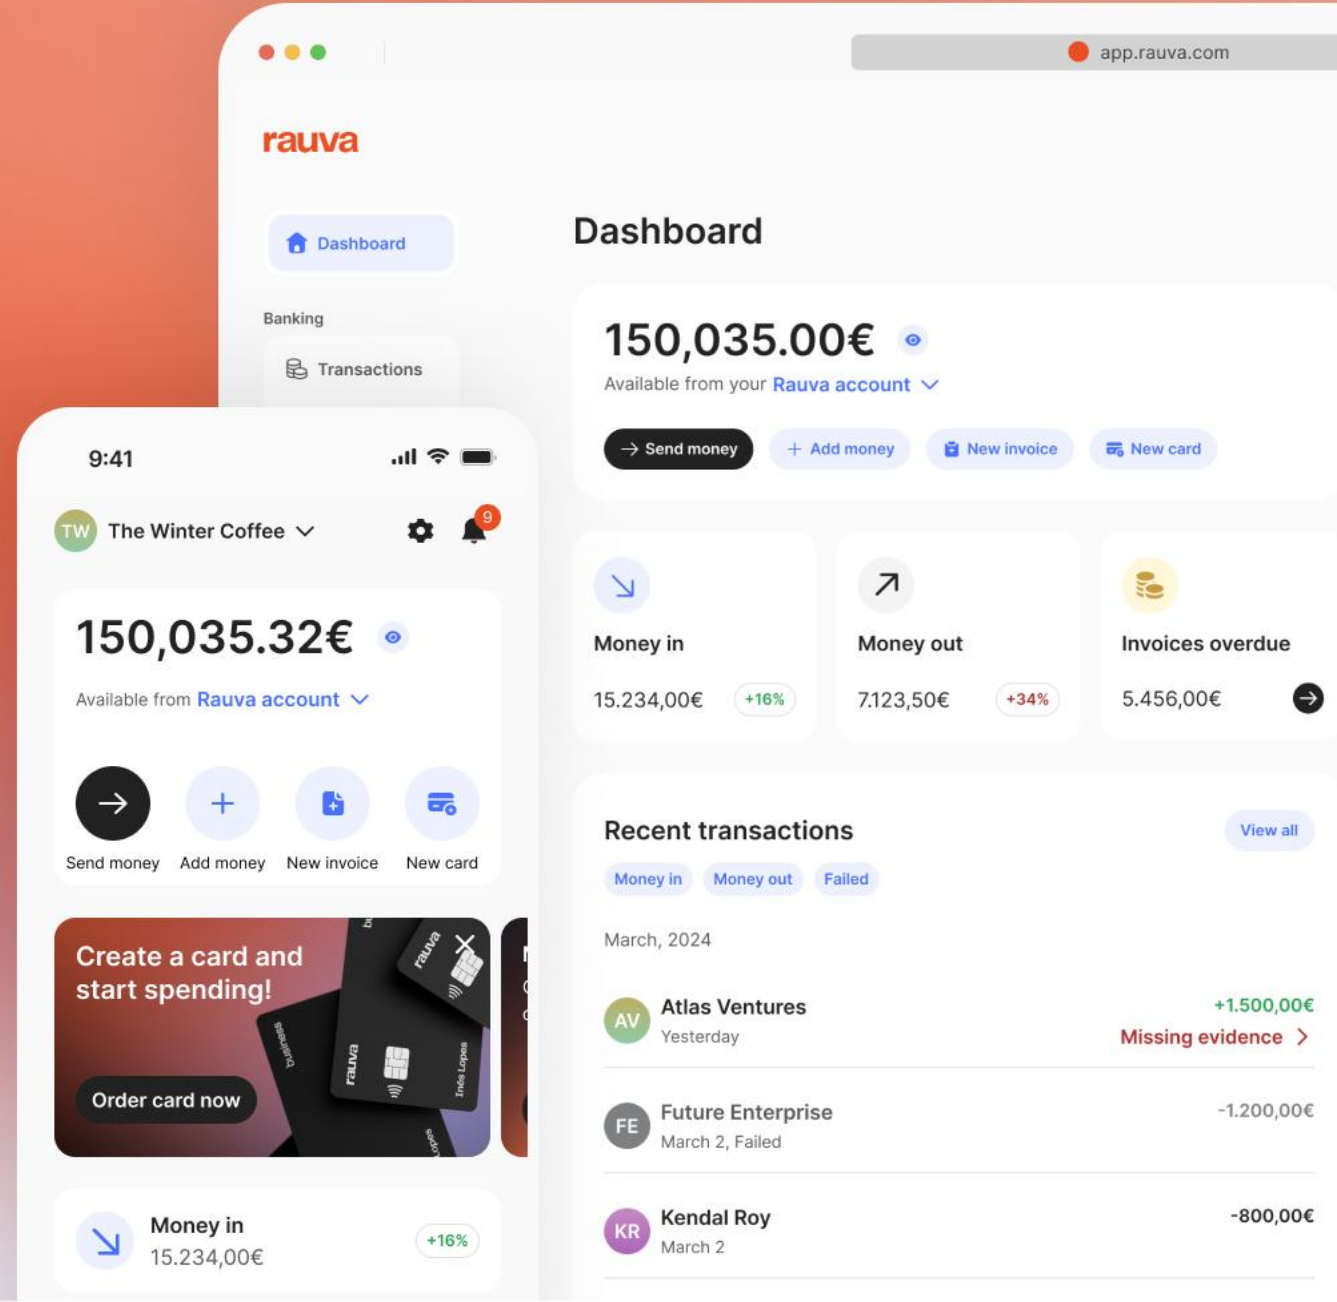

3

Insights and Analysis

- Financial planning and analysis are crucial.
- Certified accountants provide ecommerce-tailored advice on Financial planning, Cash flow management, Budgeting and Forecasting.
